

To the MOST NOBLE

LIONEL-CRANFIELD,

DUKE of DORSET,

Lord-Lieutenant of IRELAND.

MY LORD,

VERY much fear I shall be thought guilty of great Presumption in taking the Liberty to dedicate to Your Excellency a Play represented at this Season of the Year; and, at the same time, in doing it without first obtaining Leave; But as Your Excellency has too just a Taste and Knowledge of every Science to pass Judgment on any Writer, otherwise than as You are influenc'd by
